

YELLOWSTONE COUNTY BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

Resolution No. 24 - 15

Resolution of Intent to Hold Election to Establish Yellowstone County Government Study Commission

WHEREAS, pursuant to Article 11, Section 9 of the Montana Constitution and Section 7-3-172 of the Montana Code Annotated, every ten years, a county must hold an election to determine whether a county government study commission shall be established to review county government and to make recommendations as to potential modifications to county government.

WHEREAS, in June 2014, Yellowstone County last held an election to determine whether a county government study commission shall be established to review county government and to make recommendations as to potential modifications to county government.

WHEREAS, the Yellowstone County Board of County Commissioners intends, on June 4, 2024, as part of the general primary election, to hold an election to determine whether a county government study commission shall be established to review county government and to make recommendations as to potential modifications to county government. To ensure public participation in the process, the Board will receive comments on the election and hold a public hearing on the election.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED,

The Yellowstone County Board of County Commissioners intends to, on June 4, 2024, as part of the general primary election, hold an election to determine whether a county government study commission shall be established to review county government and to make recommendations as to potential modifications to county government. On February 13, 2024, the Board will hold a public hearing on the election at 9:30 am in Room 3108 of the Stillwater Building, 316 N. 26th Street, Billings, Montana. At the hearing, the Board will receive comments on the election. The Board orders the Yellowstone County Clerk and Recorder to provide notice of the hearing, receive written comments on the election and provide the comments to the Board before the hearing. After the hearing, the Board shall pass a resolution that sets the election.

Passed and Adopted on January 30, 2024.
